4TH DISTRICT COMMUNITY PROSECUTION UPDATE

On October 28th 4D's new Community Prosecutor Lou Ramos held an informational meeting for residents in the 4D Community Meeting Room. He described Community Prosecution for the dozen or so citizens in attendance and talked about how it can assist in solving more cases and even prevent crime from happening. Residents had an opportunity to talk with Assistant U.S. Attorney Ramos about their own particular concerns and also were able to get to know other members of the US Attorney Staff better. Residents wishing to talk with Mr. Ramos can reach him at 4D – 576-5255 or at his main office – 514-9314.

THE COURT REPORT

Donald Wayne Perrow, 41, of the 5700 block of Georgia Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C., pled guilty on September 15, 2005, before District of Columbia Superior Court Judge Hiram E. Puig-Lugo to contempt and assault with intent to kill charges. Pursuant to the terms of the plea agreement, the government will recommend that the defendant receive a sentence of eight years in prison. Judge Puig-Lugo is scheduled to sentence the defendant on November 14, 2005. (Case No. F-1985-05; PSA 403)

According to the government's evidence, the defendant was incarcerated between October 14, 2004 and April 1, 2005, on simple assault and misdemeanor bail reform act charges. The court had issued a no contact/stay-away order for the defendant to have no contact with his fiancé, the victim of the assault case. During his incarceration, the defendant wrote numerous letters to the victim, in violation of the stay away order, expressing his anger at his fiancé for allowing other men to stay at the apartment that the defendant had rented. He also ordered her to lie to the authorities about his previous assaults and retract her statements against him.

On or about April 1, 2005, the defendant was released from the D.C. jail and came home to their apartment located in the 5700 block of Georgia Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. Between Friday, April 1, 2005, and Monday, April 4, 2005, the defendant and the victim argued about the issue of her fidelity and whether she had allowed other men to spend the night in the apartment.

Around 6 p.m., on April 4, 2005, another argument ensued and the defendant started beating the victim with his fists. He told her that she was going to end up dead like a friend of hers who also died on Georgia Avenue. The defendant beat the victim about the head and body with his fists, causing her to bleed profusely from her mouth and nose. He continued to beat the victim with his fists until she fell to the floor and was unable to get up. The defendant left the apartment around 7:30 p.m. The victim managed to get up from the floor, and walk downstairs to the fire station next door.

The victim was taken to the hospital, where she underwent emergency surgery to save her life. She had internal bleeding, and because of the assault committed by the defendant, had to have her spleen removed. She suffered an orbital fracture to her eye, another fracture to the back of her skull, broken ribs, and massive swelling to her face and body. Doctors were not able to bring the victim out of her anesthesia, and the victim was placed on a ventilator for several weeks. Her next of kin was notified, and she was expected to die. However, she came out of her coma and has made a partial recovery.

Antoine Jacobs, 24, of the 1400 block of Buchanan Street, NW, Washington, D.C., pleaded guilty on September 26, 2005 the first day of the scheduled trial, to Second Degree Murder while Armed, in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, before the Honorable John H. Bayly, Jr. Sentencing is set for December 16, 2005. At sentencing, the defendant faces a maximum penalty of 40 years of imprisonment, with a mandatory minimum penalty of five years of imprisonment. ((F-4962-03; PSA 403)

According to the government's proffer of facts, in the early morning hours of August 16, 2003, the decedent, Elvyz Perez Morales, a transgendered person, was standing on the corner of 13th and Allison Streets, NW, Washington, D.C. Morales was dressed as a female wearing a skirt, high heels, and make-up. The defendant, Antoine Jacobs, who was riding on a 10-speed bicycle, approached Morales and had a brief conversation. Then, the two walked behind a nearby school, where Morales performed oral sex on the defendant in exchange for $20. Afterwards, the defendant returned to a nearby baseball field where his friends were sitting. Believing that Morales was a lady, he told his friends about Morales and one of his friends decided to obtain similar services. His friend returned and told the defendant that Morales "did not look right," and that he had not had sex with him.

The defendant decided that he would find Morales to determine Morales' gender. He jumped on his bicycle and rode away, but he did not immediately locate him. Before finding Morales, the defendant obtained a loaded semi-automatic 9mm pistol. The defendant found the decedent approximately one block away near the intersection of Arkansas Avenue and Allison Street, NW. With his 9mm pistol loaded with five rounds in the front of his waistband, he approached Morales. After a time, the defendant, standing at least 15 feet away from Morales, fired the loaded pistol, shooting him three times.

Four officers patrolling in a vehicle less than two blocks away heard the gunshots and within seconds responded to Allison Street, NW, where they saw the defendant straddling his bicycle. Immediately, the defendant fled on his bicycle with the police in pursuit. At some point, the defendant jumped off his bicycle and attempted to flee on foot. The police jumped from their vehicle and pursued him across the baseball field, where the defendant had been sitting with his friends. As they chased him, they saw the defendant throw the 9mm pistol that he used to shoot Morales. The officers subdued the defendant and recovered the murder weapon. Subsequently, on August 17, 2003, an autopsy was performed on the decedent's remains. Deputy Medical Examiner Dr. Constance DiAngelo of the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner ruled the cause of death to be a gunshot wound to the back with injury to the aorta, iliac artery, mesentery, and intestines. Dr. DiAngelo ruled the manner of death to be homicide.

David Johnson, 35, of the 4900 block of Fort Totten Drive, NE, pled guilty on October 12, 2005 in U.S. District Court to operating a bribery scheme with a D.C. government clerk. In pleading guilty, Johnson acknowledged that he paid money to Tonette Cooks, a teller formerly employed by the D.C. Office of Finance and Treasury ("OFT") and working for the D.C. Bureau of Traffic Adjudication, in exchange for Cooks falsely recording that various automobile tickets and fines had been paid in full. Cooks, 30, formerly of the 4800 block of Fort Totten Drive, NE, pled guilty to bribery on October 21, 2003. Both Cooks and Johnson are now pending sentencing before United States District Judge Gladys Kessler.

As part of his plea, Johnson admitted that he operated as a "middleman," collecting numerous "customers" and their bribe money, and providing Cooks with the tickets or fines to be fixed and delivering to her a portion of the bribe money. A second "middleman" with whom Cooks worked, Sherry McKnight, 41, formerly of the 3000 block of Stanton Road, SE, pled guilty on October 17, 2003, to participating with Cooks in the bribery scheme. On April 28, 2004, McKnight was sentenced to 46 months of incarceration. Johnson admitted that his actions resulted in a loss amount of over $30,000.

Melvin Howard, Jr., 30, of the 500 block of Quackenboss Street, NW, Washington, D.C., was sentenced today before the Honorable Wendell P. Gardner, Jr. to a mandatory minimum of 15 years in prison for Armed Carjacking, Possession of a Firearm during a Crime of Violence, Carrying a Pistol without a License, Unregistered Firearm, Unlawful Possession of Ammunition, and Unauthorized Use of a Vehicle. A Superior Court jury found the defendant guilty of the charges on August 9, 2005.

According to the evidence presented at trial, the offense occurred on August 30, 2003, at approximately 8:42 p.m. at a gas station located at 2830 Sherman Avenue, NW, at the southwest corner of Sherman Avenue and Harvard Street, NW, Washington, D.C. The complainant dropped her female friend off across the street, and then pulled into the gas station to buy gas and other items. The complainant noticed the defendant holding a bottle of Windex, apparently offering to wash her car windows, and nodded assent before going inside the gas station store. At that point, the defendant was wearing a hat and sunglasses. Upon paying for gas and other items, the complainant came back outside. The defendant then began spraying her with the Windex, and chased her when she began to run away. The defendant then stopped the complainant and demanded that she give up her car keys, pulling out a pistol from his waistband. The complainant begged him not to hurt her, and her keys fell to the ground. The defendant then picked up the keys and ran to the car and began to drive off at a high rate of speed.

In the meantime, the complainant's friend was screaming, and noticed Officer Jose Casiano, who happened to be driving by in his squad car. The friend flagged down the officer, who observed the complainant's car being driven away, and Officer Casiano gave chase. Eventually the defendant crashed the complainant's car into a fence, and he bailed out, dropping a hat and sunglasses as he did so. Officer Casiano pursued the defendant on foot, and lost sight of him once the defendant rounded a corner. Within four minutes, however, other officers had arrived to secure the area.

Officer Casiano retraced his steps, and found the defendant quietly crouched behind some trashcans, with his jacket pulled over his head. The defendant was positively identified by Officer Casiano, the complainant, and the complainant's friend – within 14 minutes of the carjacking – and the complainant and friend noted that the defendant appeared the same except for the absence of his sunglasses and a hat. Mobile Crime later recovered a 9-mm pistol loaded with 16 rounds of ammunition from between the passenger seat and the center console of the stolen vehicle.
